EXPERIENCE

Cyera

Software Engineer — Tel Aviv, Israel | Jun 2025–Present

- Served for seven months as AI Assets' only full-stack engineer, partnering with multiple backend engineers and Product, QA, and Design as the product grew into a standalone group.
- Built AI Assets' product pages and reusable full-stack foundations supporting multiple asset types.
- Shipped Scan Windows and Scan Control end to end across database schema and migrations, backend-for-frontend APIs, evaluation logic, settings UI, filters, and row actions.
- Resolved high-impact on-call incidents across the platform, including tracing a production OOM to database query fan-out and restoring baseline latency.
- Built reusable SDKs for other teams and served as a key contributor to the Platform group's Claude Code skills and plugins.

Panorays

Full-Stack Developer — Tel Aviv, Israel | Oct 2021–May 2025

- Spent two years on one of Panorays' two platform teams, building data integrations and full-stack product flows while improving server performance and data models.
- Then joined a newly formed cyber-posture assessment team as its first developer, owning core features including a risk policy tool and workflow automation.
- Helped standardize reusable UI patterns through the internal component-library task force.
